REVENUE RECOGNITION (Topic 605)

January 17 / 1:00 EST

In November 2011, the FASB issued a revised Proposed Accounting Standards Update (ASU) on Revenue Recognition. This webcast is the first in a series of webcasts designed to provide a review of this amended proposed ASU. You will learn about the following critical issues (among others) in this webcast:

- The new standard
- Changes to the existing requirements
- Disclosures, Transition, and Effective Date

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Staff accountants, internal and external auditors, financial reporting managers, controllers, CFOs, and financial analysts responsible for financial reporting and analysis of revenue transactions at their companies will find this webcast useful.

OBJECTIVES AND PREREQUISITES

This webcast is designed to provide an introduction to the amended Revenue Recognition Exposure Draft. Upon completing this webcast you will:

1. Learn about the major changes in this amendment
2. Improve your understanding of the proposed new revenue recognition guidance
3. Receive information about the proposed transition guidance and the effective date

Given the introductory nature of the subject, there are no prerequisites to attending this webcast.
